"African Americans in Times of War"
Alumni Hall 4:00 p.m. on Feb. 28

Michael Owens, MA English

Dr. Anthony Greene

Themes to be explored:

Government experimentation on black bodies

Civil rights

Double V Campaign

The Office of Institutional Diversity and the Graduate School will host a discussion between Michael T. Owens and Dr. Anthony Greene on Owens’ ongoing oral history project focused on the role of black veterans. Owens is the author of “Burned: Conversations with a Black WWII Veteran,” and the founder of Voices Speak – a nonprofit dedicated to telling the stories of marginalized populations.