LIVING THE DREAM
ADVOCACY, ALLYSHIP & A CALL TO ACTION

Hosted by BHIC

January 29, 2019 | 6:30 p.m. | Trident Technical College, Thornley Campus | Bldg. 920 College Ctr.
About The Black History Intercollegiate Consortium

The Black History Intercollegiate Consortium (BHIC) is comprised of Trident Technical College, Charleston Southern University, the Medical University of South Carolina, The College of Charleston (CofC) and The Citadel, The Military College of South Carolina.

BHIC’s purpose is to provide a forum to enhance racial harmony between the five member institutions and the communities they serve. BHIC also strives to create opportunities for minorities and their allies to celebrate the achievements of African Americans throughout the year.

BHIC was created nearly 30 years ago by Bob Gillis – CofC’s second affirmative action officer and Dr. Earl Higgins of MUSC as a way to enhance racial harmony between the Peninsula’s three major colleges. Dr. James B. Edwards – former president of MUSC – believed in the organization’s cause so much that he provided seed money for the group to get started. TTC and CSU joined two years later, and BHIC held its first program in 1990.

MLK, Jr. Humanitarian Award Recipient Bios

MR. MILLIGAN is an instructor at TTC where he teaches in the school’s Business Technology Division. Prior to his career at Tech, he taught in a similar capacity at CSU and was the VP of Small Business Lending at Bank of America for 26 years. Outside of the classroom, Daryl is a member of TTC’s Black History Committee, Sexual Harassment Committee and is an advisor to the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society. He was named TTC’s “Educator of the Year” in 2015. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Charleston Leadership Council - a mentoring program for high school-aged males. A native of Elberton, GA, Daryl earned a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Morehouse College and an MBA with a concentration in finance from Clark Atlanta University.

REV. CARTER has been at CSU since 2002, campus minister for nine years, and Dean of Students since 2011. His primary areas of responsibility at CSU are residence life, campus ministries, career services, security, student activities, counseling services, campus recreation and student government. He was licensed to the gospel ministry in 1984 and has an Associate of Science in Criminal Justice from the University of South Carolina, a Bachelor of Arts in Religion from CSU and a MDiv with Christian Education from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Rev. Carter has served as an adjunct professor at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and has published for LifeWay. He is a member of the Association of Christians in Student Development. He is married to Dr. Sherri P. Carter and they have three adult children, two son-in-laws, and one grandchild.

DR. LIPOVSKY is a licensed, board certified psychologist, professor of psychology and former Assistant Provost for Diversity Initiatives at The Citadel. She is a graduate of SUNY-Binghamton and the University of Florida. From 1988–1993 Dr. Lipovsky was on the faculty at MUSC’s Crime Victims Research and Treatment Center. She came to The Citadel in 1993 to direct the Clinical Counseling Masters in Psychology program. Since 2012, Dr. Lipovsky has been the Director of The Citadel’s National Coalition Building Institute team as part of her work to enhance diversity programs on campus. Dr. Lipovsky has received several teaching awards, as well as the Algernon Sydney Sullivan award for her service in the area of diversity awareness. Always believing the words of Eldridge Cleaver that “if you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem,” she has spent her career working to make the world more respectful and inclusive for all.
DR. GREENE is an Associate Professor of African American Studies and Sociology at the College of Charleston. He received his B.A. and MA in Sociology and African American Studies from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and his Ph.D. in Sociology with a concentration in Race-Ethnic Relations from the University of Miami. Since his arrival to CofC, he has taught an array of courses such as Introduction to African American Studies, Race Relations in the U.S., Black Images in the Media, Comparative Black Identity, Black Masculinity and Manhood, and Race and the Black Sporting Experience. He has been a significant advocate for many of the College's student groups and organizations, particularly for marginalized groups, at the College. He has worked closely with the Office of Institutional Diversity, Black Student Union, and Student Affairs to coordinate specific ways to address issues of equity, respectability, and racism that negatively affect students of color. In doing so, he’s moderated town hall meetings; sat on panels; and helped create safe spaces for students. In his continued advocacy for equality and social justice, he makes a daily attempt to live by the following quote: “When better is possible, good is not enough.”

DR. VUTHIGANON is an Associate Professor in MUSC's Department of Oral Rehabilitation at the James B. Edwards College of Dental Medicine (JBECDM), where he also received his dental degree. He completed an Advanced Education in General Dentistry residency at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Dentistry. Following residency, he returned to Charleston and joined the faculty full-time at his dental alma mater. In addition to attending in the clinics, he is the course director for several courses: Dental Materials, Advanced Dental Seminar Series, and Independent Projects. He was awarded the ADEA Junior Faculty Award in 2013. He is a member of several dental honor societies including Omicron Kappa Upsilon, the American College of Dentists, and the International College of Dentists. Dr. Vuthiganon serves on numerous college committees and, in particular serves as the chair of the Curriculum Committee. He is active in the diversity and inclusion efforts at MUSC and serves as the Diversity Champion for JBECDM and is a member of the MUSC Safe Zone Advisory Committee which has the mission of working towards creating a more welcoming environment for sexual and gender minority patients, students, and employees.
The Battle Hymn of the Republic

(Audience please stand)
Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword:
His truth is marching on.

(Chorus)
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me.
As He died to make men holy, let us live to make men free,
While God is marching on.

(Chorus)
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
While God is marching on.

We Shall Overcome

(Audience please stand)
We shall overcome, we shall overcome,
We shall overcome someday;
Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe,
We shall overcome someday.

We are not afraid, we are not afraid,
We are not afraid today;
Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe,
We shall overcome someday.

We shall overcome, we shall overcome,
We shall overcome someday;
Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe,
We shall overcome someday.
A Special Thank You
